Moro lawmakers hurting over Locsin's 'outmoded' remarks

By Marivic Barrios

SEMI-AUTONOMY BETWEEN THE two groups in Mindanao has become an obstacle in its path to peace, says a group of Moro lawmakers. They would rather see the region's autonomy restored than continue to live under the current arrangement.

While the Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF) has been fighting for the region's autonomy, the lawmakers are not in favor of the current arrangement. They are calling for the region's autonomy to be restored.

Parking lot squabble eyed in Peta blast

But theater executive disputes police investigator's theory

By Phyllis Torres

A 2010 Metro Manila Expressway Authority (MMA) parking lot squabble between a theater executive and a police investigator is being eyed as a possible motive for the January 3 explosion at the Peta Theater in Manila.

The MMA, which manages the parking lot, said it was not involved in the blast. It said the explosion occurred in a parking lot area that was not under its jurisdiction.

Christ painting draws uproar Down Under

AN ACT OF ART OR AN ACT OF AGGRESSION? The painting of a Christ figure in a public place in Australia has sparked a heated debate. The painting, which depicts Christ in a dark, possibly black, outfit, is said to have been created by a local artist. The painting has been described as 'offensive' and 'blasphemous' by some members of the public. However, the artist has defended the work, claiming it is a 'commentary on the human condition'.

Fil-Canadian joins RP Youth

By David H. Smith

It's not every day that a former professional athlete from one country joins the youth ranks of another. But that's exactly what happened when 21-year-old Canadian hockey player, David H. Smith, joined the ranks of the Regina Pats youth team.

Smith, who played for the Regina Pats in the 1990s, is now a member of the Regina Pats youth team. He is the only Canadian player to have played for the Regina Pats in the 1990s.

US five survives toughest test

MANILA, July 22 (AP) — The United States men's Olympic football team survived its toughest test yet, defeating the Philippines 2-0 in a friendly match at the Rizal Memorial Stadium on Wednesday.

The Americans, who are ranked 10th in the world, were led by coach Bruce Arena. They scored two goals in the first half, while the Philippines failed to score in the 90 minutes.

The match was part of a series of friendly games for the US team as they prepare for the upcoming World Cup in France. The Philippines, on the other hand, are looking to improve their performance in international matches.

The game was a tactical battle, with the US team controlling the possession and the Philippines focusing on defensive play. The Americans' defense was solid, with goalkeeper Tony Meola making several key saves.

The Philippines' attack was limited, with only a few chances created. The team's defense was tested by the US team's attacking prowess, but they managed to keep a clean sheet.

The match was a significant test for both teams, as it was the first time the US team had played against a Southeast Asian nation in a friendly match.

The Philippines' manager, Francisco Torres, praised his players for their effort and discipline during the match. He said that the team is working hard to improve their skills and tactics.

Big names add luster to Olympic football tilt

MANILA, July 22 (AP) — The Olympic football tournament in Sydney is expected to be one of the most exciting events of the Games, with many of the world's top players participating.

The tournament will feature 16 teams, including the United States, Brazil, France, and the Philippines. The matches are expected to be highly competitive and entertaining.

The Philippines' participation in the tournament is a significant achievement for the country's football federation. It shows that the team is capable of competing at the international level.

The tournament will also provide an opportunity for the Philippines to learn from the world's best players and coaches. This experience will be valuable for the team's development in the future.
